1 ALEMANIA: TRIVAGO GMBH - INTERNSHIP - ONLINE MARKETING - SEO - SPANISH SPEAKER

trivago is the world's largest online hotel search. On our website travellers compare prices from hotel booking sites such as Expedia, Booking.com or Olotels.com for over 600,000 hotels worldwide. With trivago, travellers always find the ideal hotel for the best rate.

We are a young and international team from more than 30 countries.If you want to be part of a dynamic group and assist in the development of a very unique company, trivago is the right place for you. Here at trivago we can offer you a flexible and self-directed working environment. You can develop your skills quickly and gather valuable insight across various departments of the company, offering you cross-functional opportunities where your success will be immediately tangible.

You support our team by building up long-term partnerships with travel bloggers and official tourism sites. Your primary task is to establish mutually beneficial agreements with your contacts, by identifying their interests and finding common ground with them. Some of your tasks are very similar to PR work and they require you to liaise with the PR and social media teams. You also execute our short-term partnership strategies for low-reach blogs.

Your tasks:

- Contact and build up long term partnerships with bloggers and official tourism sites.
- Research, data collection and preparation for cooperative agreements (with external partners).

Your profile:

- You are a student (or a recent graduate) of tourism or communication (or something similar) and looking for an internship in Germany.
- You speak Spanish at a native level and you are fluent in English.
- You already gained first experiences in PR, social media communication or customer support.
- You have good knowledge in Excel and Word.
- You possess a high target-group oriented thinking and you have the ability to convey information to your colleagues and business partners effectively and efficiently.
- You work well independently and require little direction.
- You are an open-minded and sociable individual who enjoys interacting with many different types of people.
- You are able to grasp new concepts very quickly. You are studying and looking for a long-term part-time job in Düsseldorf, Germany

What we can offer:

- A pleasant working environment within a young and international team. Independent work in an innovative, rapidly growing company.
- Quick, personal development and a steep learning curve.
- Flat hierarchies and short decision paths.
- Cross-functional opportunities in project and teamwork.
- Regular team events, wide range of sport activities, a fridge full of beer as well as non-alcoholic beverages and fresh fruit every day.

Duration of the internship: 6 months

The incumbent must also deal with a wide variety of people on various issues – multitasking is essential.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Implement procedural and policy changes to improve operational efficiency;
- Built network in head office and parent company office and identify crucial contacts for various departments such as IT, Office Administration, Finance, etc.;
- Maintain office efficiency by planning and implementing office systems, layouts, and equipment procurement;
- Manage day to day tasks in Santiago and Lima offices: order food for kitchen, order office supply, keep all office space tidy, maintain schedule for meeting rooms;
- Design and implement filing systems and ensure filing systems are maintained and current;
- monitor record keeping; ensure security and confidentiality of data;
- Monitor and maintain office supplies inventory;
- Review and approve office supply purchases;
- Tracking Expenses;
- Managing and submitting expense reports;
- Contribute to team effort by accomplishing related results as needed and follow deadlines;

Required Experience:

- Business degree or equivalent
- 2-5 years administrative and supervisory experience;
- knowledge of administrative management practices and procedures;

Profile:

- Fluent knowledge of Spanish and English languages;
- Pro-active, sense of responsibility, independent and customer friendly;
- Team player with excellent multi-tasking and organizational skills;
- Excellent analytical & communication skills and eye for detail;
- Experience in office management is desirable.
