

EVS Vacancy in Angoulême, France

 For Programme Countries only - European Union**

Start: 01/09/2016

End: 31/07/2017

We are currently looking for 2 female volunteers for an EVS project in Angoulême, France starting in September 2016 for a 11 months project. The EVS will be working at the Campus CIFOP (<http://www.cifop.fr/>) The campus CIFOP is one of the biggest vocational schools in the region, offering a wide range of vocational and advanced training courses.

We are looking for volunteer for two different missions:

1. The volunteer will work in the socio-educational department of the school. Her main task will be to organize animations and activities for the students living in the boarding school, organize animations about European citizenship, etc. We are therefore looking for an open-minded and creative person who enjoys working with young people and like to come up with creative ideas for the students
2. We are looking for a volunteer to support the team of the "Centre d'étude des langues". The volunteer will work in the language lab, help with the inscription of language learners, etc.

The volunteers will live in the boarding school in L'Isle d'Espagnac. Everyone has its own room with private bathroom.

Please note that we can only accept candidates coming from Programme Countries (EU countries). We are looking for female volunteers who are already a bit older 21+ since the volunteer will work with the student in the age of 16-20. Basic French language skills are required.

The project will be coordinated by the organization TERA – Maison de l'Europe de la Charente. So please send us directly your CV and letter of motivation in English OR French to tera.international@free.fr

Application Deadline: January 24th 2016

Please state which of the 2 projects you would like to apply for.
