

JoinThEvs

Welcome Infopack for the European Voluntary Service in Associazione di
Promozione Sociale Joint
Milan - Italy

Dear Partners and friends,
 Associazione di Promozione Sociale Joint would like to invite you to spread this Information Pack for hosting two Evs Volunteers that will collaborate with us in Milan from the next September 2016 .

Are you ready to get involved?

Here you can find more details about the duration and the aims of the Evs project

Number of Volunteers	Beginning of activities	End of Activities	Duration
1	September 2016	June 2017	10 months
1	September 2016	June 2017	10 months

The Volunteers will be involved in activities at local level with children of Primary Schools and they will also work in strictly contact with the staff.

The following main tasks will take place in a building located in Via Riva di Trento - Corvetto area, a multicultural neighborhood in Milan and some activities will be performed in the office:

- Preparation and implementation of after-school activities with children for 2 days a week

- Dissemination of Erasmus + opportunities among young people, taking part to trainings for future Evs volunteers and spreading information through meetings at local level and with the monthly informative day at InformaGiovani Milano

- Support and promote each phase of sending process for Italian participants taking part in work-camps and overseas volunteering experiences
- Writing articles and calls to promote mobility opportunities for young people on the websites in Italian, English or other languages
- Helping with practical tasks like cleaning and preparing the space for events and meetings.

Optional tasks:

- Support with the organization of Erasmus+ projects hosted by Joint in Italy
 - Draft and develop new ideas for local or international projects
 - Create and manage creative and cultural laboratories with children and the local community
 - Take part in intercultural meetings and linguistic tandem to involve the local community
 - Web development
- Graphic design of paper and web promotional materials
- Communication: social media management in different languages
 - Administrative tasks

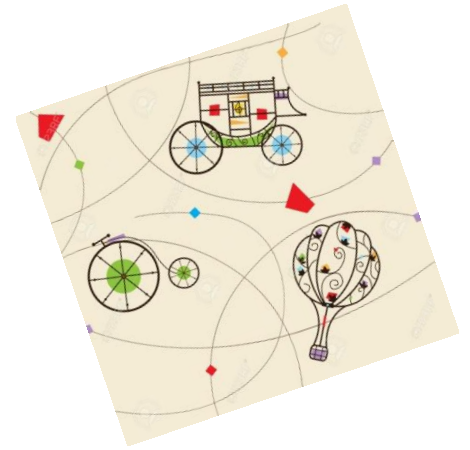

Accommodation

The volunteers will share a studio flat (one room apartment) in Milan, with 2 beds, a bathroom and an eat-in kitchen. The accommodation is provided by Associazione Joint and is located in the city center, next to the Underground Station of Porta Romana

Financial Support and transports

A Pocket money of 115 euro per month will be provided plus 150 euro per month for food expenses + a monthly ticket for local transports.

The travel budget from and to the country of the volunteers will be defined by European Commission Distance Calculator.

An online Italian language course will be also provided in the first months of the Evs

Health and Insurance

An insurance will cover the Volunteers for the entire duration of the project. The insurance cover under Erasmus+ is complementary to the coverage provided by the national system.

Selection Criteria

- Have basic knowledge of Italian language or an advanced knowledge of another Romance languages
- Be ready to live in Milan with a limited budget
- Have good spirit of adaptation and work in a team
- Be creative, patience and well motivated for working with children
- Have basic experience with children
- Have interest and motivation to implement some activities included in the optional tasks
- Be an open minded and understanding person with great motivation for learning new skills and sharing ideas
- Be adaptive to the roles and respect the duties and the responsibilities given

Procedure for apply

The potential candidates have to send a Curriculum Vitae and an Application Form in English not later than 18th of January 2016
Contact for the selection process sve@associazionejoint.org