

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The Centre-Val de Loire Regional Centre for Youth Information (CRIJ – Centre Val de Loire) is a regional association founded in 1989 and member of the national youth information network. It targets young people (mostly from 15 to 25) and it aims to inform them about all topics that may have an impact on their daily life.

We will welcome 4 volunteers with the European Solidarity Corps.

We are looking for 2 volunteers for a mission in cooperation with the ASELQO, a socio-cultural association based in Orléans.

There are two different missions proposed:

Mission 1:

- to encourage sustainable development and citizenship
- to animate activities and events that encourage local and sustainable thinking and healthy living
- to contribute in keeping alive the shared gardens of the city

Mission 2:

inform and raise awareness on international mobility and interculturality

- to develop intercultural experience and meetings between young people
- to be in touch with young people in order to inform them about different European and international mobility options
- to create partnerships with the country of your origin in order to create new mobility opportunities

You will be working in cooperation with the 2 European volunteers of the CRIJ. You will be having common activities and events together !

ACCOMODATION, FOOD, TRANSPORT ARRANGEMENTS

You will be hosted in common or single flat, each volunteer has his/her own room. You will receive pocket money (180 euros) and you will get monthly food financing, as well as a free transport card to travel in the city. Workings hours: 30 hours per week. From monday to friday. Possibility to work on saturday with recovery. Travel costs will be covered.

VOLUNTEER PROFILE

You are between 18 and 30 years old ? You are interested in discovering the youth information sector an in communicating your experience as a volunteer to young people ? You have a bit of knowledge in french and want to learn by practising ?

You are enthusiastic and dynamic ? We are waiting for your application !

WHERE, WHEN, HOW LONG ?

The mission takes 10 months and will start in October the 1st.

Orleans is a french city 150 km away from Paris. You can easily reach Paris by train (1 hour transportation).

WE ARE LOOKING VOLUNTEERS FROM

Spain, Germany, Italy, Belgium, Luxembourg

HOW TO APPLY

Send us your application before August 15h, at the following email adress : delphine.adam@ijcentre.fr

