SAINT-LO AGGLO

Saint-Lô Agglo: a dynamic territory in the heart of Normandy

Located in the Centre-Manche area, between the D-Day Landing Beaches and Mont-Saint-Michel, Saint-Lô Agglo offers a unique setting that combines nature, history, and modernity. With its 61 municipalities and nearly 79,000 inhabitants, it's a welcoming, human-sized territory that is constantly evolving.

WHY CHOOSE ST-LO AGGLO

An exceptional living environment

Normandy's bocage, marshlands, the Vire Valley, forests, and hiking trails for walking, cycling, or canoeing. Perfect for nature and outdoor enthusiasts.

A rich cultural and historical heritage medieval ramparts, the National Stud (horse capital), museums, and routes exploring Liberation and Reconstruction.

A young and dynamic atmosphere nearly 2,000 students, more than 50 higher education programs, cultural events, festivals, sports associations, and youth spaces that encourage exchange and creativity.
